“Like many, I questioned if coupons could make a meaningful difference in our budget. But as I started collecting my Olympian and News Tribune coupons and learned how to match them to store sales, my eyes were opened! Coupons have helped my family reduce our grocery spending by half and on name-brand items, too.”

– Angela Russell, The Coupon Project

A special offer will be available for attendees to subscribe to additional Sunday papers.

Seating is limited so, email and reserve your spot today!
